Restaurant guide Zagat is out with its D.C. readers' favorite burger joints, and votes put perennial favorite Ray's Hell Burger in Rosslyn at the top.

Black & Orange, with locations in Dupont Circle and on 14th Street, ranked No. 2, according to Zagat diners.

Five Guys, with locations throughout the metro, came in No. 3, followed by Thunder Burger & Bar in Georgetown and Good Stuff Eatery, with locations on Capital Hill and in Crystal City.

A separate Zagat Burger Survey says respondents report eating a hamburger an average of 4.3 times a month.

Jeff Clabaugh covers general assignment and provides business coverage for WTOP.
